Dedication

When we, the Class of June 1953, entered Newport News High School, we were welcomed by a person who also was new to our school. We therefore feel it most fitting to honor this man who has inspired us through our high school career and who will remain to inspire those students who follow.

His devotion to his work and his unselfish effort to keep Newport News High School an outstanding place of learning have won him the respect and admiration of students and teachers alike.

As we leave, we carry with us the inspirations and ideals that he has instilled in us during the past five years.

We are proud to dedicate the 1953 Anchor to a man of superior ability and deep understanding, our principal, Mr. George J. McIntosh.

Prologue

Because drama is a reflection of life itself, we have chosen it as the means of recording the events of Newport News High School - 1953. That today's experiences may become tomorrow's memories, we now present . . .

Five Years of Their Expert Leadership

SINCE DR. NELSON has been superintendent much has been accomplished to improve the educational facilities of our school system and to provide greater opportunities for advancement in all fields of learning.

In the late spring the school board moved to its new headquarters, the old Magruder School, which had been converted into an office building. The board has been making plans for the reconstruction of the high school and has been considering plans for expansion.

DR. R. O. NELSON

MRS. C. B. COE

THIS YEAR the aim of the PTA was to give the parents and teachers what they need and want in an association to further the spiritual, physical, and mental welfare of the students. Mrs. C. B. Coe served a second time as president.

Produced a Successful Play

MR. GEORGE J. McINTOSH

MISS GILDERSLEEVE, dean of girls, and Mr. Keesee, assistant principal, are kept busy with many important issues. Working out class schedules, handling disciplinary measures and school rules, and supervising student government are only a part of their activities. Many and varied school problems are solved easily through their efficiency, interest, and helpfulness.

MISS ETHEL M. GILDERSLEEVE AND MR. THOMAS O. KEESEE

MRS. LUCY BOWEN, MRS. JULIA MILLER, AND MRS. JUDY KEIL

OUR PRINCIPAL, Mr. McIntosh, has proved to be a wise and capable leader who has won the respect and admiration of us all. In the trying period following the fire, he handled the many problems with skill and precision.

WITHOUT OUR "business managers," our play could not have been produced. Taking care of correspondence, mimeographing bulletins, balancing the school budget, as well as answering hundreds of questions a day, are only a few of the things done by Mrs. Bowen, our secretary; Mrs. Keil, our bookkeeper, and Mrs. Miller, our clerk.

A Parting Tribute

THERE ARE HIGHLIGHTS to be noted in a review of Mrs. Edwards' teaching career in Newport News. One such is her long and brilliant sponsorship of the Literary Club. For many years this organization carried on a high level program and once a year presented an outstanding assembly program. Mrs. Edwards' teaching career has been ably matched by service in the professional organizations of the city and state. Her service in the Newport News Education Association, as its president and as a working member in many capacities, constitutes a notable chapter in its history.

It is difficult to assess the many values which flow from a teaching career that is spent virtually in one great school. The work of a contributive teacher is enhanced by its presence in a school which offers great opportunities for contribution. Mae Marshall Edwards is a teacher who rose to meet the obligation which such opportunities impose.

Probably the basic service rendered by a teacher throughout a period of years is that rendered to the thousands of students who study in her classes. Figuring three hundred different pupils per year, forty years' service would give a total of twelve thousand young people who have enjoyed a period of continued contact with the teacher in the classroom and in other activities — the population of a small city. It is an impressive thought; it is a reflection fraught with recollection and pregnant with satisfactions for the years of retirement.

Senior Officers in Leading Roles

TAKING TIME from their official duties, senior officers pause for a moment at the entrance of the Greek Theatre. For this play only, Cecil Underwood and Caroline Crutcher, Honor Council Representatives; Bobby Sterling, treasurer; Jane Peirce, secretary; Ronnie Jenkins, vice-president, and Ralph Whitley, president, assume the roles of spectators rather than leads.

ONE OF THE highlights of the senior year is the prom, the responsibility of which rests upon the Senior Dance Committee headed by Rosemary Joyner and Jean Roberts.

AFTER JUDGING auditions, Senior Assembly Co-Chairmen, Caroline Crutcher and Claude Barfield, run over the musical score for the annual senior assembly.

Gave Polished Performances

TWO SYMBOLS of a senior, the class ring and the cap and gown, are admired by Ring Committee Chairman Joyce Fenton, and Cap and Gown Committee Chairman Nelda Cobb.

GRADUATION REALLY seems near when seniors begin ordering their pennants and invitations. Jean Tappan, chairman of the Invitation Committee, and Carl Kemper, chairman of the Pennant Committee, are ready to put samples on display.

CLARENCE HILLING, Color Committee Chairman, visits a local florist with Lenora Miller, chairman of the Flower Committee. Here they are looking at gladioli and carnations which were chosen as the senior class flowers.

FRANCIS HULL, chairman of the Motto Committee, places his original motto, "We build for character, not for fame," upon the bulletin board as Jo Ann Merritt and Richard Pulsifer watch.

Aided by Veteran Actors

MR. J. C. RANGE

Dear Seniors:

One phase of your life is complete. The vacancies you leave will be taken by countless others but the memories are left behind to challenge them in an attempt, some day, to reach your place in life.

You are entering another phase of life. In it you will meet strangers, make friends, work, establish homes, and become a part of your community. What part you play in this drama is entirely up to you! Yours can be a leading part or merely a minor one but be sure it is well played no matter how great or how small!

Remember, nothing can be better than your best.

J. C. RANGE

The Class Sponsors

Seniors of '53:

Congratulations upon having achieved the long awaited and aspired goal of completing your high school education. Although many of you have more years of school ahead, the majority of you are now to be "on your own."

Many people try to advise and alarm you by assuring you that the adult world into which you emerge is cold and cruel. You have experienced this world. Though in school you have lived a somewhat protected life, this is life. You have worked hard at times and relaxed or loafed at other times; you have been happy and sad, inspired and disgusted, successful and disappointed. Life was abbreviated here, yes — but real. Did you find it cold and cruel? Few of you found it so. If you did, could the fault lie within you instead of without?

Just as a lamp will brighten the darkness, a flame will warm the cold surroundings or a small amount of matter will tend to fill a vacuum, so you can brighten, warm, and fill the world around you. The world around you cannot remain dark nor cold, nor empty if you are filled with spiritual light, warmth and affection for others, and enthusiasm for living.

I challenge you to live life to the utmost. My every good wish for your success.

Sincerely,
PATSY DALE

MISS PATSY DALE

Their Majesties. . . .

KING DONALD BRANDT AND QUEEN SHIRLEY DANCEY

AMONG THE fashionable theater-goers are Jonzennie Mewborne and Frank Cannon, best dressed seniors.

BEST STUDENTS, Martha Robeson and Cecil Underwood are inspired by a Greek drama.

LOOKING FORWARD to a bright future, Rosemary Joyner and Ronnie Jenkins, most likely to succeed, view the Greek theater.

AGAINST THIS Grecian background Pauline Rouvalis and Bobby Sterling, best looking pair, might be mistaken for Venus and Adonis.

THE HALL

LEAVING the theater, most popular celebrities, Donald Harvey and Joyce Fenton, display the sparkling smiles that won them this title.

BOB CONLEY and Mona Webb, most athletic seniors, put sports aside momentarily and become drama conscious.

OF FAME

TAKING THE part of the Greek Chorus, Larry Armstrong and Shirley Davis, the best dancers, give a modern touch to this classic.

THE SPOTLIGHT falls on Ralph Whitley and Jane Peirce, best all around boy and girl, as they take their place on the stage.

MOST TALENTED duo, Thomas Weymouth and Patty Parker, relax during intermission.

"NO PLAY could be a success without humor," say Nancy Christian and Lon Heidler, the wittiest.

These Scenes Were Highlights of the Play . . .

"A HUNDRED and one pounds of fun" . . . that's Bobby Sterling, Sue Stockton's "Honey Bun," in this novelty number from senior assembly. Presented as "Senior Fair," the assembly featured can-can dancers and ballerinas, pianists and violinists, pantomimists and vocalists.

"IT'S A GREAT DAY" when seniors, like Mary Dick, proudly display their '53 pennants. There's no mistaking June graduates as they strut through the halls.

THE DREAM of every senior — the prom — on that Spring night, the King and Queen of the class watched as their subjects, the Seniors, danced under the soft green and white lights. The celebrities of the class were presented to their majesties after which the Grand March took place with all the seniors taking part. Dressed in their gayest and most fitting finery, Ralph Whitley and Myrtle Sisson are ready to pay homage to the King and Queen.

As Today's Understudies, the Juniors

EVEN THE MICE have their own celebrities. Here Joyce Wyatt, best all round girl; Jack Crutchman, in a dual role as best all round and best looking boy; Agnes Mae Dick, best looking girl; and Cleveland Rowe, most athletic, pose for photographers in true actors' fashion.

The Play

Act One

"Act well your part, there all the honor lies."

Alexander Pope

The Stage Was Set in the Classrooms

MR. WHEARY impresses upon his government pupils the importance of understanding our government.

"SUPPLEMENTARY work can be fun," says Pat Branch, as she displays her model of Admiral Ben Bow Inn.

MEMBERS of Miss Seat's F period gym class acquire the "know-how" of basketball.

A TYPICAL day in the physics class—classroom discussions and experiments give physics students a keener knowledge of the subject.

AMERICAN LITERATURE forms the basic outline of study for Mrs. Edwards' eleventh grade English class.

Where History Books and Maps,

"IN 1653, CROMWELL was made Lord Protector of England," explains Mrs. Hurt to her class of eager modern history students. Modern history gives students a broad conception of world events in recent years.

IN THIS DAY and time, students like to keep abreast of the happenings in the world. Kent Puckett and Myrtle Sisson find ample references in the library which will give them the information they need to conduct an informative discussion in their government class.

Slide Rules and Compasses, Test Tubes

SOLID GEOMETRY and senior arithmetic are only a few of the hurdles cleared by these amateur mathematicians. An early review of arithmetic, two years of algebra, a year of plane geometry, and a half year of trigonometry will give them a good start in the race they are about to enter.

STUDYING HARD, Faye Epstein and Gladys Friedman find that the course in senior arithmetic will be an advantage in later life.

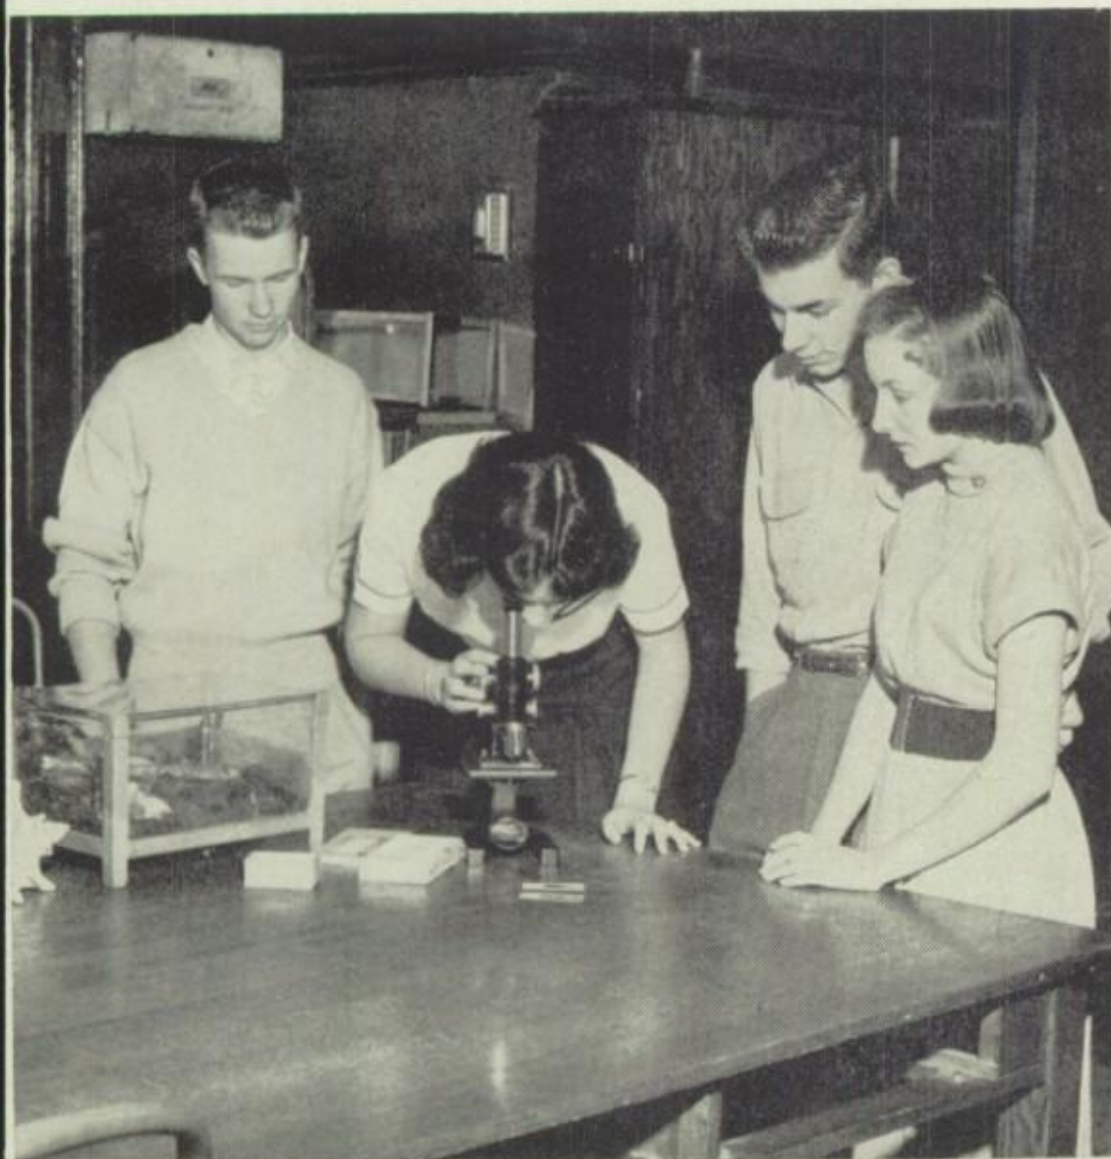

"ACCORDING TO the slide rule, the base of my pyramid is to yours as five is to two," Bobby Sterling tells Franklin Murray.

And Microscopes Served as Props

FUTURE ATOMIC experts? Here we see Jacque Heuter, Ann Payne, Claiborne Hicks, and Robert Schell preparing equipment for an experiment under the direction of Miss Dale.

TWO COURSES taken by college preparatory students are chemistry and biology. Chemistry familiarizes students with the properties of elements and their compounds. The biology department is outlined to give a general introduction into the development and structure of plants and animals.

"LET ME SEE, TOO," says Bobby Tuck to Charlene Nachman, who is examining the microscopic germs in one drop of water. Moonyeen Warren and Edward Gaylord anxiously await their turn.

Some Actors Performed in English and French

ENGLISH ISN'T ALL grammar anymore; an appreciation of the classics is developed from the first year in high school. Here is a scene from Mrs. Cameron's ninth grade class in which Judy Leggett explains a project based on Les Miserables to classmates Shirley Allan and Harriet Gwaltney. The English course of study is designed to give students a strong foundation in the use of the language. Four phases emphasized throughout the four and one-half years of required English are reading, writing, speaking, and listening.

Monseieur Larry Armstrong posts a calendar stating, "La Noel est en decembre," with Myra Goodson, Melvin Caplan, and Ann Morris acting as supervisors.

To really acquire a French atmosphere, each student is given a French name and is taught to tell the time and the day of the month in French. Besides being taught the mechanics of the language, the pupils are also given an excellent cultural background of France.

Others Played Their Parts in Latin and Spanish

PHILLIP SAVILLE, Nancy Hawley, Stuart Greenspon, Margaret Johnson, and Evalane Green, like all Latin students, find an outlet for their energy and enthusiasm by constructing supplementary projects which illustrate examples of Roman culture and customs. Latin enthusiasts study the early history of Rome, her leaders and heroes, Roman architecture and government. As their study of Latin progresses, the students learn more about the complexities of the language and translate poetry and prose written by famous Roman authors such as Caesar, Cicero, and Virgil.

"THE LITTLE DONKEY is one of the most common animals of Mexico," translates Mr. Cole for his students, Agnes Rowe, Erwin Victor, Billy Dick, and Doris Bowden. The study of Spanish gives students an opportunity to learn the fundamentals of grammar and to increase their familiarity with Spanish customs. Daily drills aid them in becoming better acquainted with our South American neighbors.

The Musicians Prepared the Score

NOW HERE'S some good old-fashioned harmony! Gay Allen, Jack Odell, Taylor Goode, Barbara Ballard, and Ann Carney combine their talents in chorus class. Chorus is required in the eighth and ninth grades. Those who wish further training take it as an elective in the upper grades. In conjunction with the Senior Chorus, the chorus classes presented a musical revue and a spring concert this year.

"ALL TOGETHER now—in time," directs Mr. Warner. Band students are taught the principles of instrumental music and are given the opportunity to further cultivate their talents. Band classes are arranged according to the types of instruments: brass, woodwinds, and percussion.

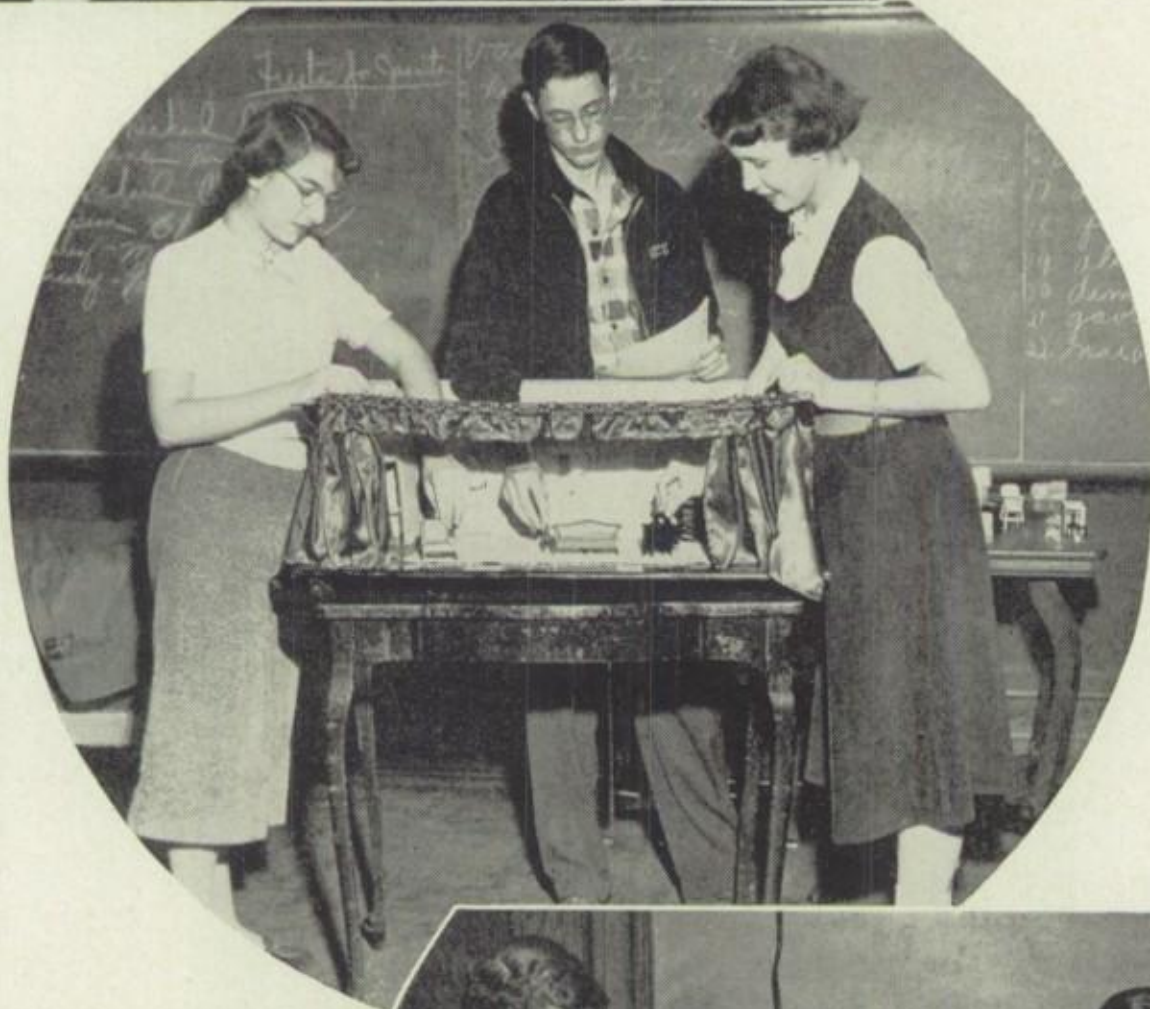

IN ART CLASSES the subject matter is limited only to the scope of the imagination. The students may draw from fashion magazines, sketch landscapes, or paint pictures by memory. Here we find Kay Sawyer and Mary Dick admiring a scene of an English countryside on which Jimmy MacAfee places the finishing touch.

While the Players Rehearsed Their Lines

"DON'T ANYBODY give me any trouble, and nobody will get hurt," threatens James Henkel, acting as a crook in a classroom play. Betty Hambey, with script in hand, directs Jimmy and tells the victims, Donald Stortz, Margaret Hubbard, and Clifford King to look frightened. Drama students write, act, and direct their own plays as part of their classwork.

THERE'S MUCH more to producing a successful play than meets the eye. Drama students learn not only the arts of acting but also backstage preparations. Naturally, the appearance and practicability of the stage is set is quite important, and Sandra Gordon, Louis Smith and Kim Ferson find that experimenting with miniature stage sets is excellent practice.

"TESTING — one, two," says William Davis as the radio-speech class prepares to record a broadcast. These students, Carol Weiner, Darling Anderson, Clarence Hilling, Joe Poslik, Phillip Pleasants, and Ann Lee Gay, work with Miss Helmer to plan and present "Typhoon Time" every week.

Behind the Scenes Costumes Were Designed,

MARY ANN MICHIE, Rebecca Young, Elaine Binder, and Jackie Martin feel right at home in the kitchen. Cooking classes teach the young women of tomorrow to prepare nutritious, well-balanced meals. All high school girls are required to take at least one-half a year of this course.

"DO YOU WANT your skirt hemmed at eleven inches or twelve?" asks Shirley Smith as she prepares to mark the skirt of Marite Berzin's dress. All eighth grade girls are required to take one semester of sewing and, if approved by one of the home economics teachers, may advance to courses in which they learn to sew suits and party dresses.

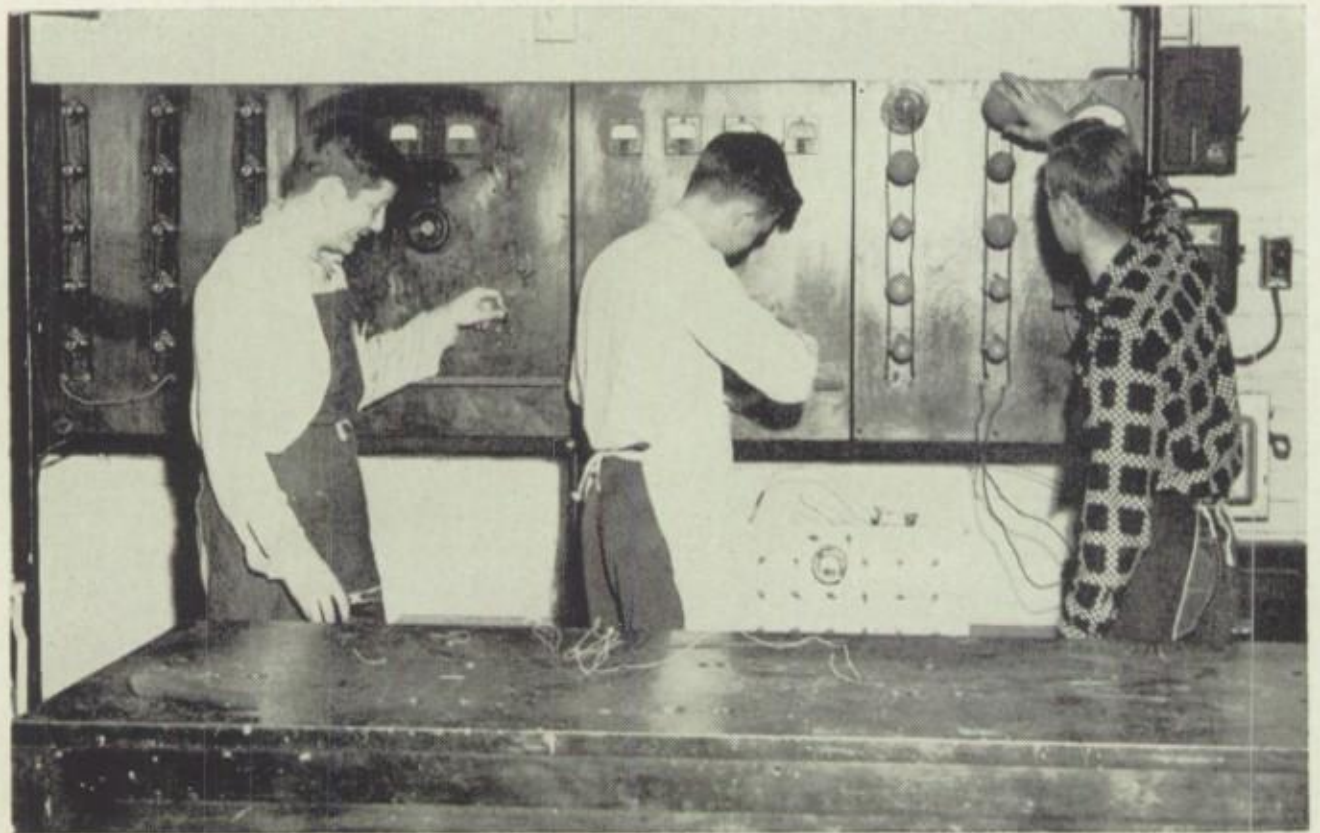

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS learn how to make comfortable home and manage them economically in the home management courses. Joyce Vanni has just made a picture from flowered wall paper. Janet Joyner paints a scene for her bedroom in oils while Bernice Harcum and Barbara Kubel make candles for Christmas.

Furniture Refinished, and Programs Printed

IF YOU DON'T follow the instructions of your teacher, this might prove to be one of the most "shocking" courses in Newport News High School. Electric shop serves as a laboratory for the teaching of electronics.

PROSPECTIVE PRINTERS are kept busy in print shop, for they print the school newspaper and tickets for school productions. Here Lon Heidler runs off some samples to show his instructor, Mr. Thompson.

WOOD SHOP is the headquarters for future carpenters. Here students learn all phases of woodwork and learn to make articles by hand and by machine.

With Skill and Precision the Performers

AFTER THE school fire, the girls' gym classes were moved to the Armory where they were able to play basketball and volleyball and to participate in games such as pingpong, shuffle board, and checkers. With the return of spring, the girls went outdoors, where they played softball.

"I'M REALLY beginning to get the feel of the wheel," confides Robert Joyner to Miss Alexander, his drivers' training teacher. Drivers' training classes give the students a better knowledge of highway rules and give them experience in handling an automobile.

BESIDES CLIMBING ropes, running track, and taking push-up, boys' gym classes also find a spare moment for recreation. Here a group of boys are having fun erecting a human pyramid. Physical education is required for both boys and girls in all five years of high school.

Moved Smoothly to the Close of Act One

THE COMMERCIAL courses combine efforts to prepare future secretaries to take a stand in the business world. Commercial students must take both shorthand and typing to receive credit on either one. Seniors may take one year of typing and receive credit, however.

THE AIR is tense as these typing students complete their time writings.

IF YOU HAVE TROUBLE balancing your budget, you'd better take a tip from Mr. Leonard's bookkeeping students.

IT'S NOT as complicated as it looks—so says Margaret Pegram and Shirley Dancey.

Our Play Was the Story of Democracy in Action

THE EXECUTIVE BOARD, which is composed of a representative from each class and Student Council officers, meets every Monday morning. Acting as a steering committee for the Student Council, it makes plans for each week. All committee chairmen are urged to attend because the Board aids them in preparing the school projects which they sponsor. This group is responsible for promoting improvements in both the physical and moral atmosphere of the school. Not every high school can boast of such a strong governing body composed entirely of students.

All 1400 students have the opportunity to voice their opinions and wishes through their representatives on the Executive Board.

BEHAVIOR CODE — Seated, left to right: C. Simpson, M. Johnson, N. Hawley, S. Stockton (chariman), F. Raine, M. Llewellyn, W. Beckner. Standing, left to right: B. Carpenter, M. Futrell, S. Melton, Z. Papas, J. Mitchell, D. Steele, M. Johnson, B. English, J. Hamner, C. Ross, F. R. Lucy, S. Lewis, N. Keeton, B. Howard, C. Farmer, J. W. Webster.

THE COMMITTEE worked diligently during the year to revise the behavior code so that it would be more applicable to current needs.

SCHOOL SPIRIT — Standing, left to right: D. Hixon, J. L. Martins, J. Hamner, J. Mewborne, H. F. Bowen, D. Higginbotham, M. Sundet, J. Broadwater, T. Morrison, C. Barfield, C. Crutcher, A. Newsome, S. Stockton, B. Walker, M. Sisson, B. Mosby, J. Peirce, M. Madagan, B. Smith.

THE REGULAR Saturday morning duty of the School Spirit Committee during football season was decorating goal posts.

Students Governing Themselves,

THE PURPOSE, as set forth in the constitution of the student body, is: "To foster the sentiment for law and order, to provide opportunities for student cooperation in the internal government of the school, to promote worthy student activities and the general welfare of the school, to give students training for citizenship."

The Council was organized around 1920 at the suggestion of Dr. Fred M. Alexander. Since then it has expanded and has made needed changes all of which were first sanctioned by the entire student body.

Among this year's activities have been several dances, the Community Chest campaign, sale of Typhoon book covers, and various school-wide contests.

Through skits and attractive posters the Publicity Committee successfully advertises the projects and activities of the Student Council. Here they are making decorations for the "Bunny Hop" which was held on April 10.

Selling tickets, decorating, and taking care of the many details involved in sponsoring a dance keep the members of the Dance Committee well occupied.

Working Together to Prepare for

THE WALLS take on a clean look as the members of the House and Grounds Committee get busy with their cloths. This committee is responsible for the special attractiveness of the home-rooms when it sponsors the fall and spring clean-up weeks.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC campaign gets under way as Jeanette Hornsby distributes lapel boxes to all members of the March of Dimes Committee. This project has become so important that a special committee, composed of a representative from each homeroom, was organized.

PUPILS ARE remembered in times of illness by the Student Council Remembrance Committee, headed by Martha Robeson. The Barbara Ann Deal Committee conveyed school spirit and activity to Barbara Ann Deal. The year's activities are recorded in a scrapbook by Anne Newsome.

NEW STUDENTS are made welcome to our school through the work of the Newcomers Committee. Each week pictures of three newcomers are displayed on the bulletin board so that students can learn to recognize newcomers and call them by name.

Future Roles in Our Modern Society

MEMBERS OF the Honor Council pause at the door of the court room to observe the bas-reliefs of men who have secured and maintained our rights to justice in the courts of our nation.

The Honor Council visited the court house to learn how justice is rendered in the courts of Newport News. They found that their purpose and the purpose of the Juvenile Court were much the same in that both were trying to help the students rather than punish him.

THE HONOR SYSTEM in Newport News High School had its origin in 1933. At that time the system was carried on by a number of subject classes known as honor classes. To become an honor class, the members had to be in unanimous agreement that they would follow the system. The next step in the evaluation of our present system was to allow individual students to pledge themselves as honor students in regards to all their classes. After this, the Student Council made up an honor code and established the Honor Council to administer infractions of the honor code. The Honor Council is composed of eight members representing all five grade levels in the school. The eighth grade, freshman class, and sophomore class elect one member each from three nominees. The junior and senior classes elect two members to the council from the slate of nominees. The council itself elects one of its junior class members to serve as a carry-over member during his senior year. Thus the seniors actually have three members on the council.

The principal aim of our honor system is not to bring punishment upon the offender but to help that person see the error of his ways and make a renewed attempt to live by the honor code.

Youthful Journalists Found a Medium

ONE OF THE most hardworking organizations in school is the yearbook staff whose job it is to record accurately and vividly the account of the year's events. To become a member of The Anchor staff, a pupil must serve an apprenticeship during the second semester of his junior year. During this time he observes the work of the current staff and takes a course in yearbook production (after school).

In October, thirteen members of the staff attended the Yearbook Shortcourse at Columbia University, where they gathered many ideas and heard talks by yearbook authorities. Others journeyed to Lexington in April to attend the Southern Interscholastic Press Association Convention. This time some of the staff members turned "authorities" and participated in panel discussions.

For Their Creative Abilities in Our Publications

PUBLISHED TWICE a month, the school newspaper, The Beacon, keeps the students well informed on school activities. The paper consists of four pages; the first is devoted to the current school events, the second to editorials, the third to information and club activities, and the fourth to sports. The Beacon staff is made up of a representative group from all the grades. The editors are veteran members who have studied journalism and have served an apprenticeship of several years. In March the staff attended the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention in New York, and they also traveled to Lexington where their paper received an achievement award.

BROADCASTING from WGH every Saturday morning, Typhoon Time presents talent, interviews, and prominent school figures, and carries a summary of the current week's events.

Many of the Outstanding Players

CHOSEN FOR their leadership, scholarship, character, and service, the members of the National Honor Society represent the most promising students in our high school. To be a member of this group is one of the highest honors a person can achieve in his high school career.

THE QUILL AND SCROLL is an honorary society for high school journalists who have done outstanding work on publications. Three years after the national organization was begun, the Newport News High School chapter was established.

Were Honored for Jobs Well Done

THE OLDEST CHAPTER of Thespians in the State of Virginia is the Newport News High School chapter. Thespians is an honorary organization whose purpose it is to honor outstanding accomplishments in drama and to aid in maintaining high standards. Membership in this organization is attained by points acquired by superior acting and staff work.

A COMPARATIVELY young organization, the Key Club was formed in NNHS in 1949. The club, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, is composed of junior and senior boys who rank in the upper third of their class scholastically and who are outstanding in leadership, ability, citizenship, and service to the school. Because of activities that are directed toward civic betterment of the community, the Key Club is coming to the forefront as a valuable asset, not only in NNHS but also in our community.

School Spirit Was Boosted with Peppy Cheers

BAND SWEETHEART Helen Arroll
and Drum Major Charles Hogan

ONE OF THE most outstanding groups in the school is the Senior Band. Composed of fifty-seven members, the band performed at various school functions during the entire year. In the fall they marched at football games and presented entertainment between the halves and played for all the pep assemblies.

The big event of the football season, however, was the presentation of the band sweetheart during halftime of the Norview game.

Another equally important phase of the band's work was the concert season. Although the band did not attend the District Band Festival, it sent various solo and ensemble groups. In conjunction with the chorus, the band also presented a concert on May 24 in which it displayed its musical talent and versatility.

LEADING THE SCHOOL in its resounding cheers are eight of the peppiest and most spirited girls that Newport has seen in many years. They are (left to right) Jean Roberts, Joyce Fenton, head; Mona Webb, Jonzennie Mewborne, Darlene Mitchell, Caroline Crutcher, Donna Keranen, and Rosemary Joyner. The cheerleaders plan pep assemblies, cheer at all home games, and generally work to keep school spirit high.

And Our Band's Snappy Marches

ASPIRANTS FOR the cheerleading squad must pass a threefold screening. First the faculty passes on all girls' names which are submitted. Then the cheerleaders, the remaining group; and, after weeks of training, some more of the girls are eliminated by the cheerleaders. Lastly, the candidates go before the student body in a special assembly, and the school makes the final choice as to which of them will become members of the squad.

LOVELY TO look at and talented, too — here Varsity Flagtwirlers Patty Parker, Marjorie Krause, Beverly Zegopulous, and Jeanne Winstead display the balance and precision with which they perform their many difficult routines. These snappy strutters lend color and interest to all home football games as they march with the "Gold and Blue" Band during halftime. As well as appearing in many local parades, they also accompanied the band to Norfolk to participate in the Oyster Bowl Parade.

Other Senior Musicians Proved the Old Saying,

ECHOING FROM room 114 every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings, the voices of the Senior Chorus members can be heard rehearsing their parts. The chorus participated in Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies and presented a spring concert in addition to the musical revue. Members of the chorus have taken advanced chorus classes at one time or another. Pupils who are outstanding in chorus receive letters as rewards for their achievement.

*Lots of love to a real nice boy. Love ya!
Barbara*

"A TOUCH OF STARLIGHT" was the theme of the musical revue presented by the members of the Senior Chorus. In this scene Barbara Ballard, accompanied by the Chorus, sings "Night and Day." The costumes and scenery formed perfect staging for the "fascinating rhythms and haunting melodies."

"Practice Makes Perfect"

WITH SUCH capable accompanists as Ann Carney (standing) and Barbara Anderson (seated) Mr. George Marenchin, chorus director, is able to produce concerts and musical revues.

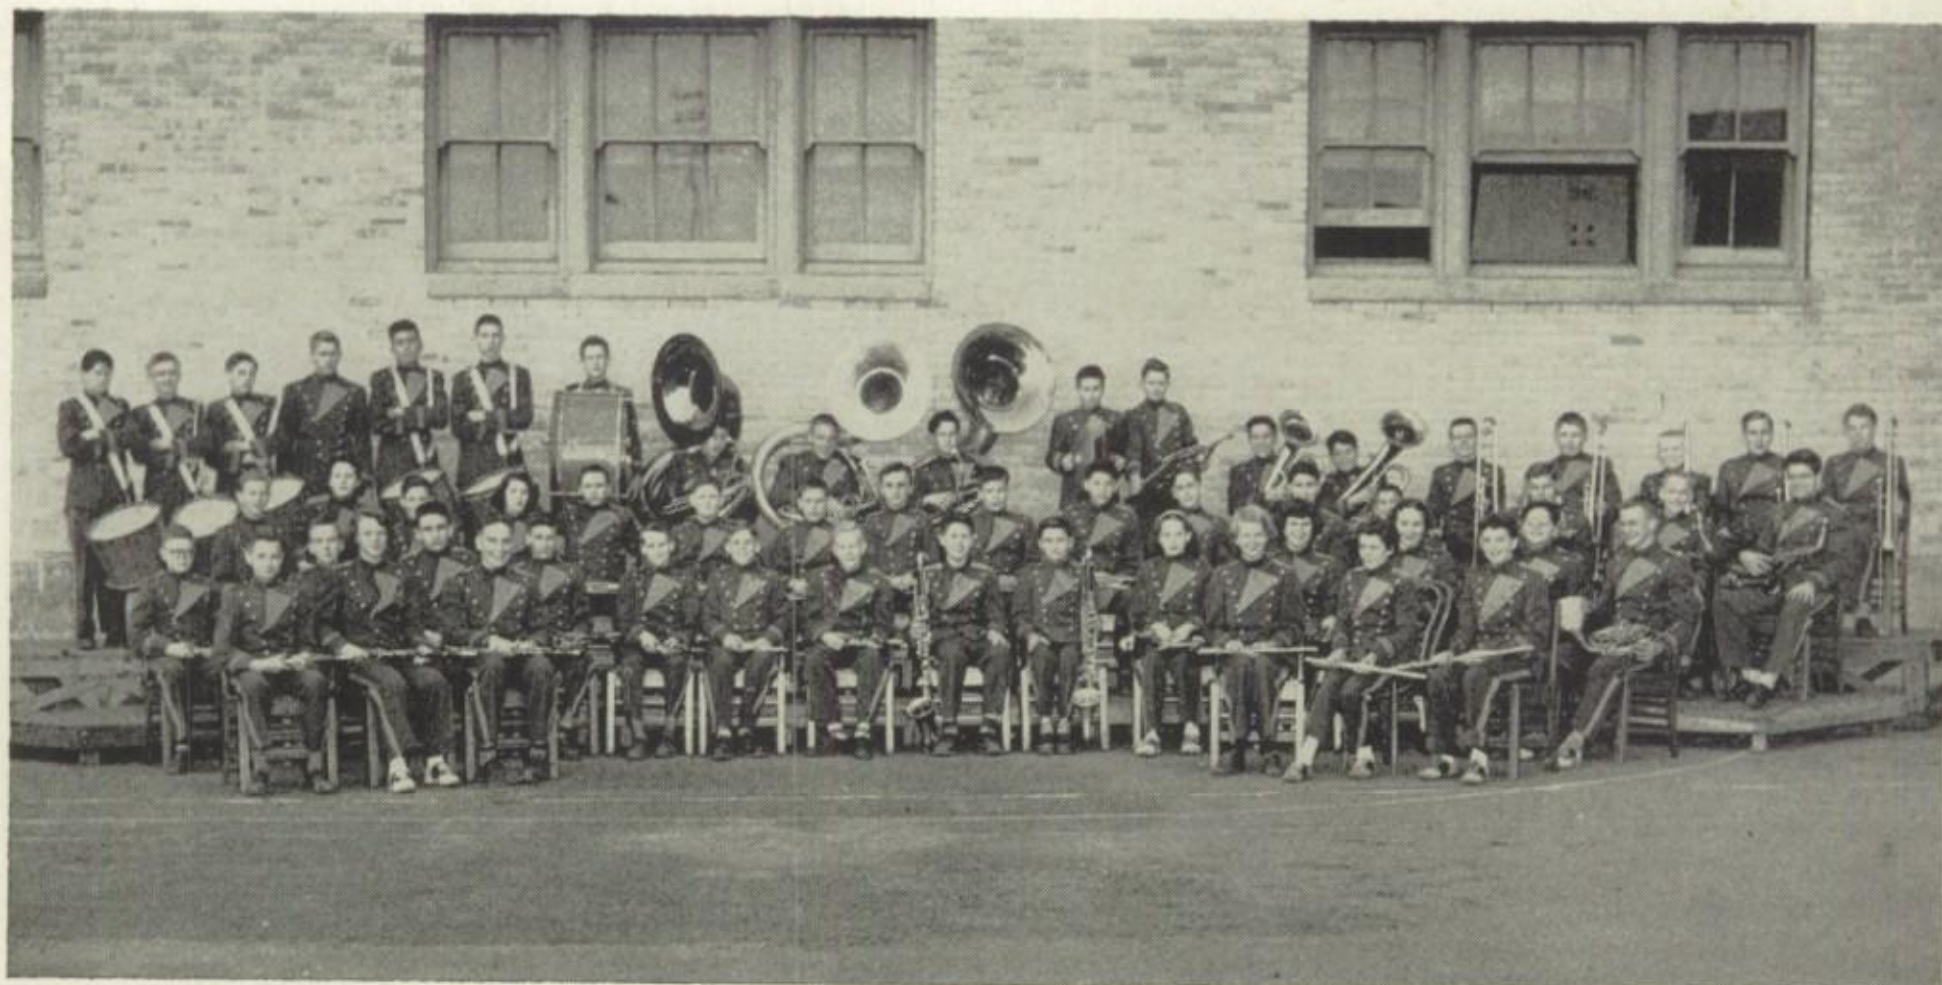

*Good luck
always "hera".
Love ya June A.*

The Understudies Made Their Own Music

JUNIOR MUSICIANS learn to improve their techniques and gain experience to make them ready to fulfill the activities of senior band members. All pupils who take eighth and ninth grade band are automatically members of the Junior Band. This year the band marched at two Jayvee football games, played for the band parents, and participated in the competitive musical festival in Norfolk. The flagtwirlers always add a special attractiveness to the band as they strut in their white satin uniforms and artfully twirl their flags.

With Instrument and Voice

OUR JAYVEE Cheerleaders put the vigor into the "Breezes" that makes them grow into "Typhoons." Eagerly following each event, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders urged the Jayvee teams to many victories in both football and basketball games. Besides supporting their teams on the field, they participated in pep assemblies.

DURING ITS TEN years of existence, the Junior Chorus has had a threefold purpose: to train eighth and ninth grade students to sing with a large group, to prepare talented students for membership in the Senior Chorus, and to provide a means of self-expression for the members of the group. Miss Eleanor Sherman has been the director of the chorus for the past two years.

FALL PLAY, "in goes the good air, out goes the bad air," chants Teensie as "Poppy" prepares to revive "Myrtle the Turtle." Room for One More, the play presented by the drama department of Newport News High School in November, 1952, combined warm humor and just a touch of tragedy to captivate the audience.

TOURNAMENT PLAYS have become an annual affair at Newport High. They were started for the purpose of developing directional skills among students of directing and of affording acting opportunities for more students. This year the judge, Howard Scammon, selected Book Lovers, the tenth grade play, and Pink and Patches, the ninth grade play, as superior. Teapot on Rocks, the eleventh grade play, and Billy's First Date, the eighth grade play, were given excellent ratings; and Smell of Powder, the twelfth grade play, was given a creditable approval.

By the Technicians and Crew Backstage

TO STAGE a successful show, this group of staff heads begin work well in advance of "show time." They must see to the directing, costumes, make-up, and props needed by the stars for the efficiency of their production.

"NO MORE WORK here for the present," say these members of the stage crew as they view the blackened ruin left by the fire. After the fire, this group of hard-working boys had to plan the staging of high school productions in other auditoriums.

"MAY I SHOW you a seat?" ask these five lovely ushers. Pat Parker, Nancy Morris, Jonzennie Mewborne, head; Nan Barfield, and Ann Scott help make the evening enjoyable by distributing programs, locating seats, and keeping order in the halls.

The Players Gained Experience for Future Roles

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS, a part of the American Red Cross program, was organized thirty-five years ago for student membership. Any student who makes a voluntary contribution becomes a member. Homeroom representatives form the Junior Red Cross Council which conducts the program. Some activities engaged in this year were: filling gift boxes for overseas, sponsoring a First Aid Training Course, distributing clothing to a Children's Home, and preparing an album for National correspondence exchange.

ALL JUNIOR and senior girls taking the library science course, automatically become members in the Library Assistants Club, which was organized in 1939 as the first in the state. Formed for "social service, and recreational purposes," these girls serve in the library to aid in its efficiency and to learn the technique of library operation.

As Civic Leaders, Business Managers, and Homemakers

THE DO CLUB was organized for students taking the diversified occupations courses. The club displayed pictures and posters to acquaint pupils with DO Club members and their occupations.

EVER SINCE it was founded at NNHS in 1938, the DE Club has aimed to provide means of learning about the opportunities in the field of distribution, to develop leadership, and to provide for participation of its members in civic enterprises.

A GROWING appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking is promoted in the Future Homemakers Club which has been functioning in NNHS since 1947. The ideals, which the club upholds, are instilled in its members through its activities.

They Furthered Their Interests in Science

William and Mary in April and again at the annual meeting of the Virginia Academy of Science in May. Although only eight years old, the NNHS Science Club has had four state officers, has won the Milbr Award twice and has received second place in exhibits.

ANY STUDENT of Spanish is eligible to become a member of the Spanish Club which strives to promote interest in the study of Spanish and in Spain and the Latin-American countries. The program this year consisted of two skits, a talk by a native of Puerto Rico, a talk by Mr. James Mays on "Christmas in Spain," a quiz contest in Spanish, and a Mexican hat dance.

"TO PROVIDE an opportunity to learn more about Latin and the Romans and to provide social contacts for its members" were the purposes for organizing the Latin Club. Any student who has passed Latin I with a B average or above is eligible for membership. Activities this year included a Roman Banquet for the initiation of new members.

REORGANIZED under the sponsorship of Miss Margaret Williams, the French Club adopted a new name, Le Cercle Francais, and a new constitution. Through social gatherings and activities the club seeks to acquaint members with the traditions and habits of the French people as well as to increase their knowledge of the French language.

PICKSKIN DRAMA

The Golden Typhoon, operating out of Coach Sachon's self-styled Kentucky version of the split-T, provided many thrilling moments for their numerous fans this year. Not a large squad, they played a wide-open end run and long pass game.

Co-captain Ronnie Jenkins kept the crowds constantly on edge with his brilliant style of razzle-dazzle downfield running. Many of the Typhoons' foes devised their whole defense just to "Stop Jenkins." Not to be outdone by his teammate in the backfield, Co-captain Bob Sterling snared pass after pass bringing the cheering Newport fans to their feet. Plagued by injuries and lack of experienced replacements, the Gold and Blue still fought each contest to the very end, never giving in until the final whistle had blown.

The traditional Thanksgiving game with Hampton saw the Typhoons and the Crabbers battle through a succession of long runs, passes, and a thousand anxious moments before the game ended in a 14-14 tie. Two scintillating dashes of 82 and 61 yards, coming on the wings of two spiralling forward passes, kept the underdog Newport team knocking at victory's door; but the Crabbers, capitalizing on two costly Typhoon fumbles, scored twice to tie the game.

Larry Armstrong, Ronnie Jenkins, and Bobby Sterling walked off with the top laurels of the season. Armstrong was chosen as a member of the Group I All-State Football Squad; Jenkins copped the coveted Julian Gordon Trophy and the Peninsula Sports Club's certificate for being "the most outstanding back." Sterling received a similar certificate as "the most outstanding lineman."

THE JAYVEE STORY

With an eye to future years, the members of the Newport News High School J. V. Football Squad battled their way to a highly successful season. Led by Co-Captains Gene Hedrick and Herbert Ross, the J. V.'s won five games and lost only one. Strong on defense, the Breezes allowed their opponents only 45 points while piling up 132 of their own. Opening their schedule, they polished off the Warwick High School J. V.'s, not even allowing their opponents to score. Next the Breezes traveled to Norfolk to win handily over the "Bay Commodores" of Maury High School. The third game of their schedule saw the "Baby Typhoons" suffer their only defeat of the season at the hands of the Wilson High School J. V. squad. With less than two minutes to go, the Breezes were leading 14-13; but their opponent finally connected on a long pass after having three others successfully blocked and scored, thus winning the game. After this the J. V.'s took revenge on the rest of their foes and won their last three games with ease. At an assembly after football season, each member of the squad was given a certificate and Coach Powers congratulated the squad on its fine team play and spirit.

RONNIE JENKINS is driven out of bounds after making a short gain during the game with Wilson.

A JEFFERSON player gets a free ride, but Ronnie Jenkins picks up valuable yardage.

Scenes Such As These Brought Cheering Fans to Their Feet

IT'S "UP AND OVER" for Leo Fitchett, Typhoon, full-back, as he hurdles a down-trodden Norview lineman to drive on for five more yards.

IN THE WILSON GAME, Cecil Underwood, Gold and Blue end, makes a desperate grab which pays off in a tackle that stops the Presidents from making a first down.

THE GROUND can be mighty hard Glenn Crockett finds when he is really dumped by a foe during the game with Thomas Jefferson.

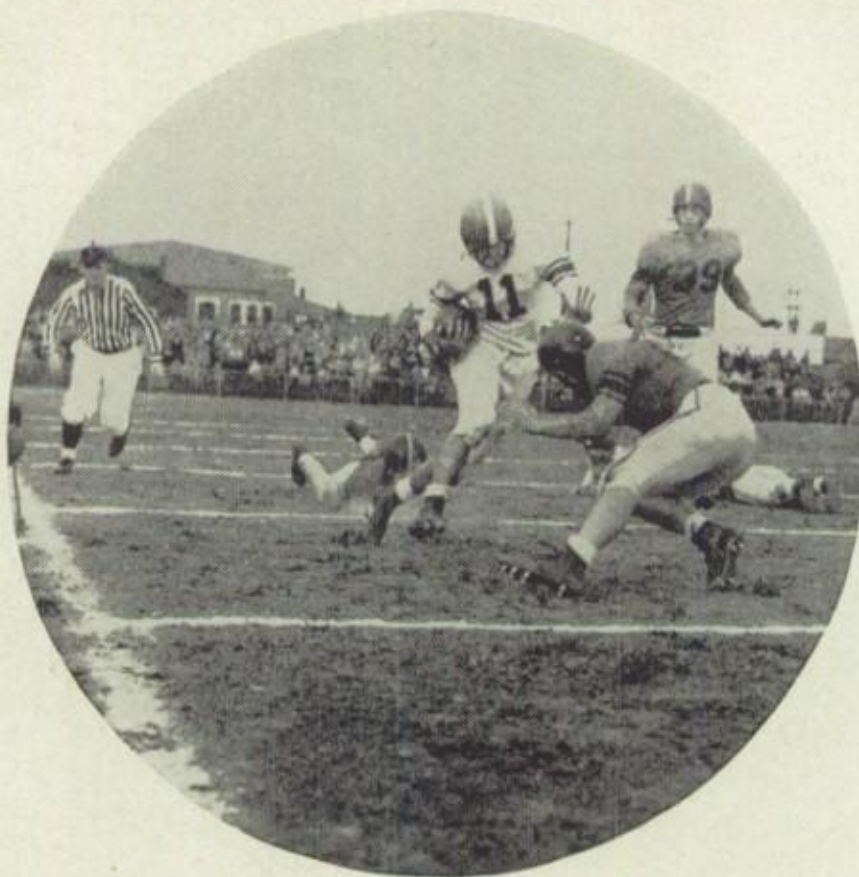

LEAPING HIGH into the air, Mac Langston makes a thrilling attempt to snare that ball. His teammate, Harry Simpson, looks on helplessly as the ball goes sailing over their heads.

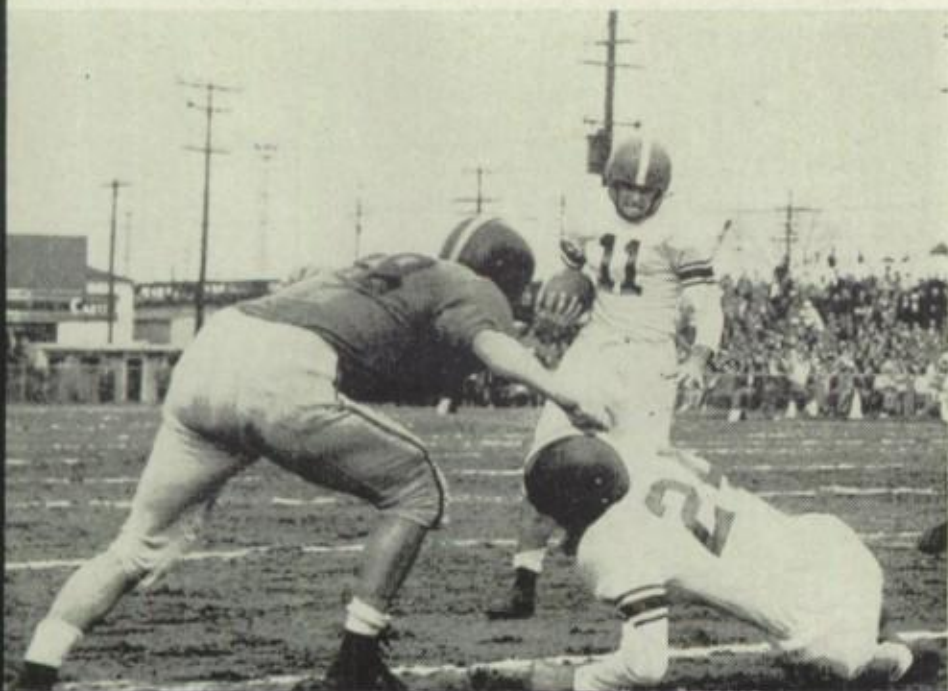

THE MOST BRILLIANT run of the day was executed by Ronnie Jenkins when he shook off all Hampton defenders and romped 85 yards to pay dirt in the end zone.

The Turkey Day Classic Was a Bruising 14-14 Tie

WHAT HAPPENS when "an irresistible force meets an immovable object" is demonstrated by Mac Langston as he downs a fast-moving Crabber.

PLAYING A STERLING defensive game, Cecil Underwood shows the Crabbers the futility of trying to sweep the Typhoon's well-protected ends.

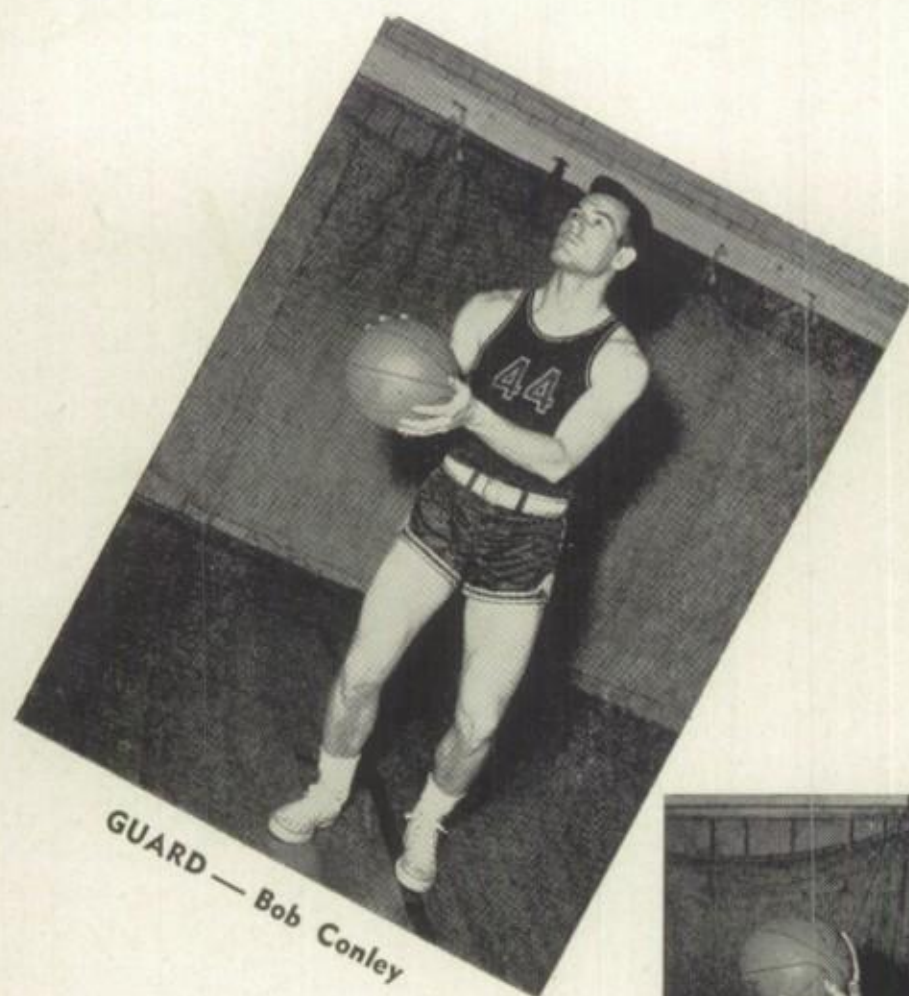

EVERYBODY GOT into the act on this play. This pile-up came when the Crabber attempted to gain a few yards through the middle of the Typhoon line.

HARDWOOD HIGHLIGHTS

Displaying the basketball perfection and coolness that have accompanied them through so many banner basketball seasons, Newport News High School Cagers fought and surged their way to another highly successful season.

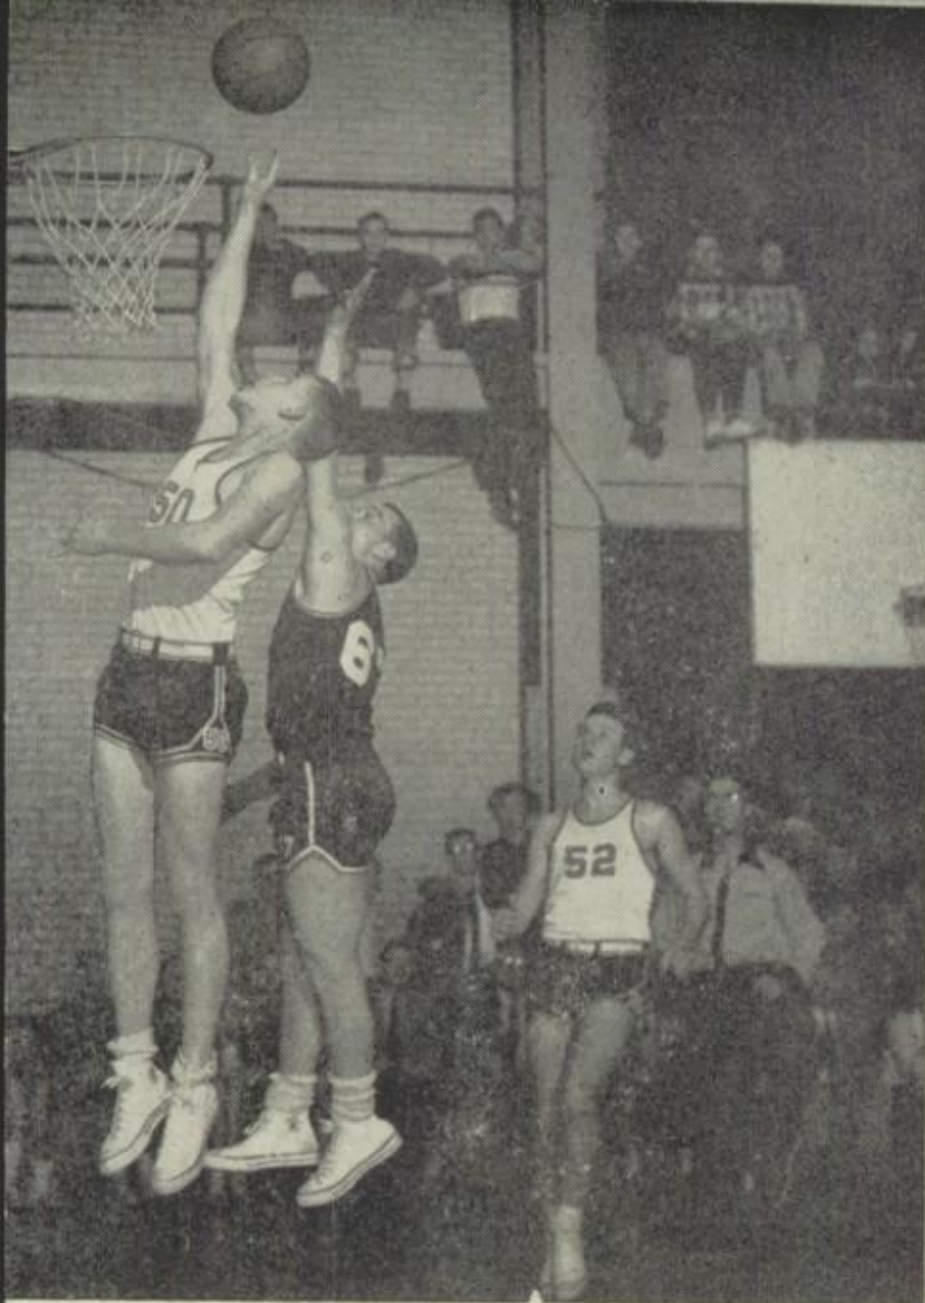

Starting slowly, the Typhoon was handed two losses in its opening games but went on to win the rest of their conference bouts and wind up Eastern District Champions again. Their only losses during the regular season came at the hands of two non-conference teams—Duke University's J. V. squad and Fork Union Military Academy.

As with all of Coach Julie Conn's great basketball teams their motto was: "One for all, all for one." The Gold and Blue really exemplified its motto this year as the three top scorers for the team were bunched right up together in average points per game. Forward Cecil Wright led the team with an average of 12.9 points per game, and he was followed closely by guard Bob Conley with a 12.7 average. Don Brandt, the team's other guard, was just behind Conley with a 10.2 average for the season. Cecil Underwood, the center, barely missed being a 10-pointer as he ended the season with an average of 9.7 points per game.

The Golden Typhoon as defending state champions and leader of the Eastern District quints went into the state tournament with quiet hope and determination to bring the crown back to Newport News for the third consecutive year . . . but it was not to be. Drubbing Danville 60-35, the Gold and Blue won the opening round of the tournament, but the second round saw the Newport team fail to recover from a disastrous first quarter in which they scored only 5 points and lost to Alexandria 45-40. The Typhoon did, however, win the consolation game on the next night, defeating Thomas Jefferson of Richmond 61-47.

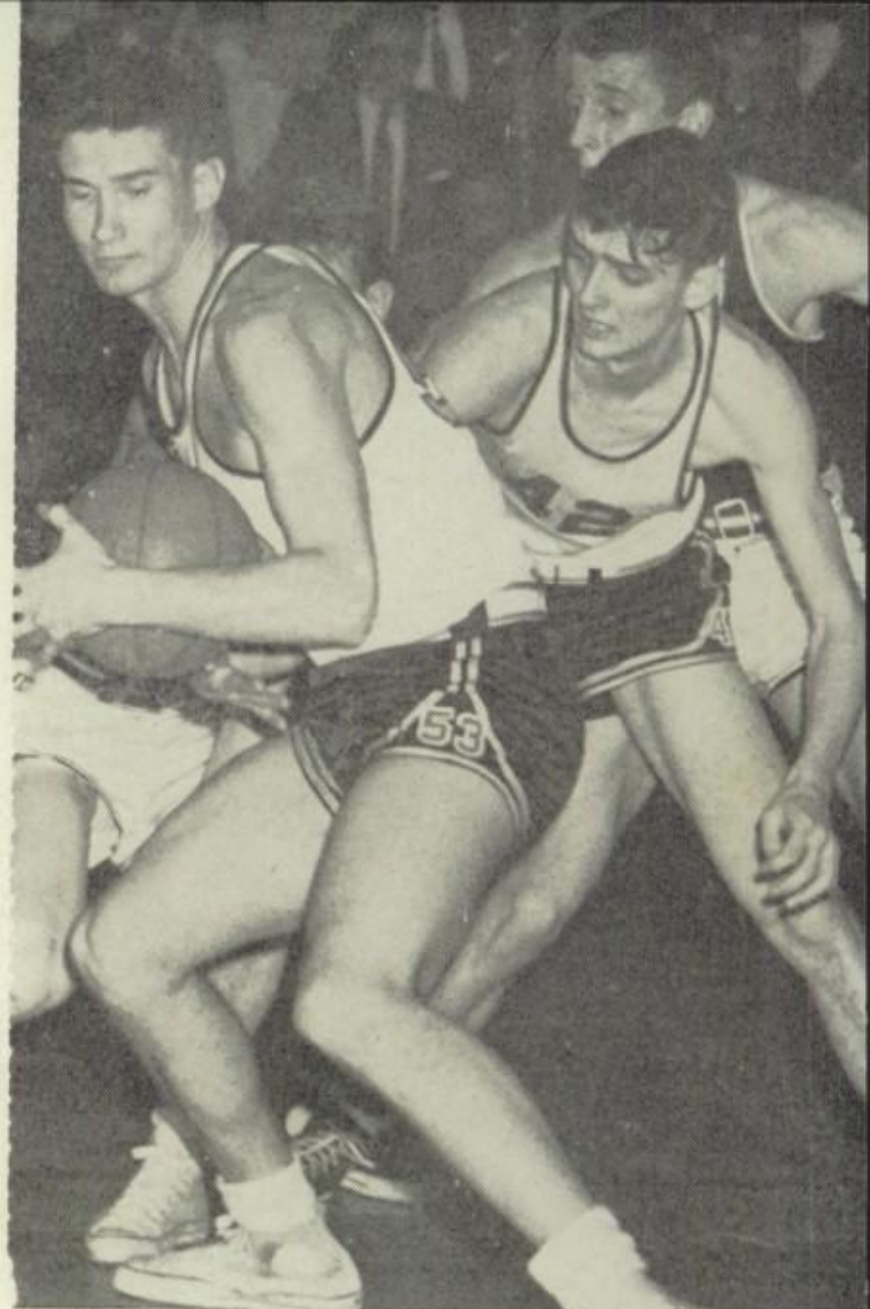

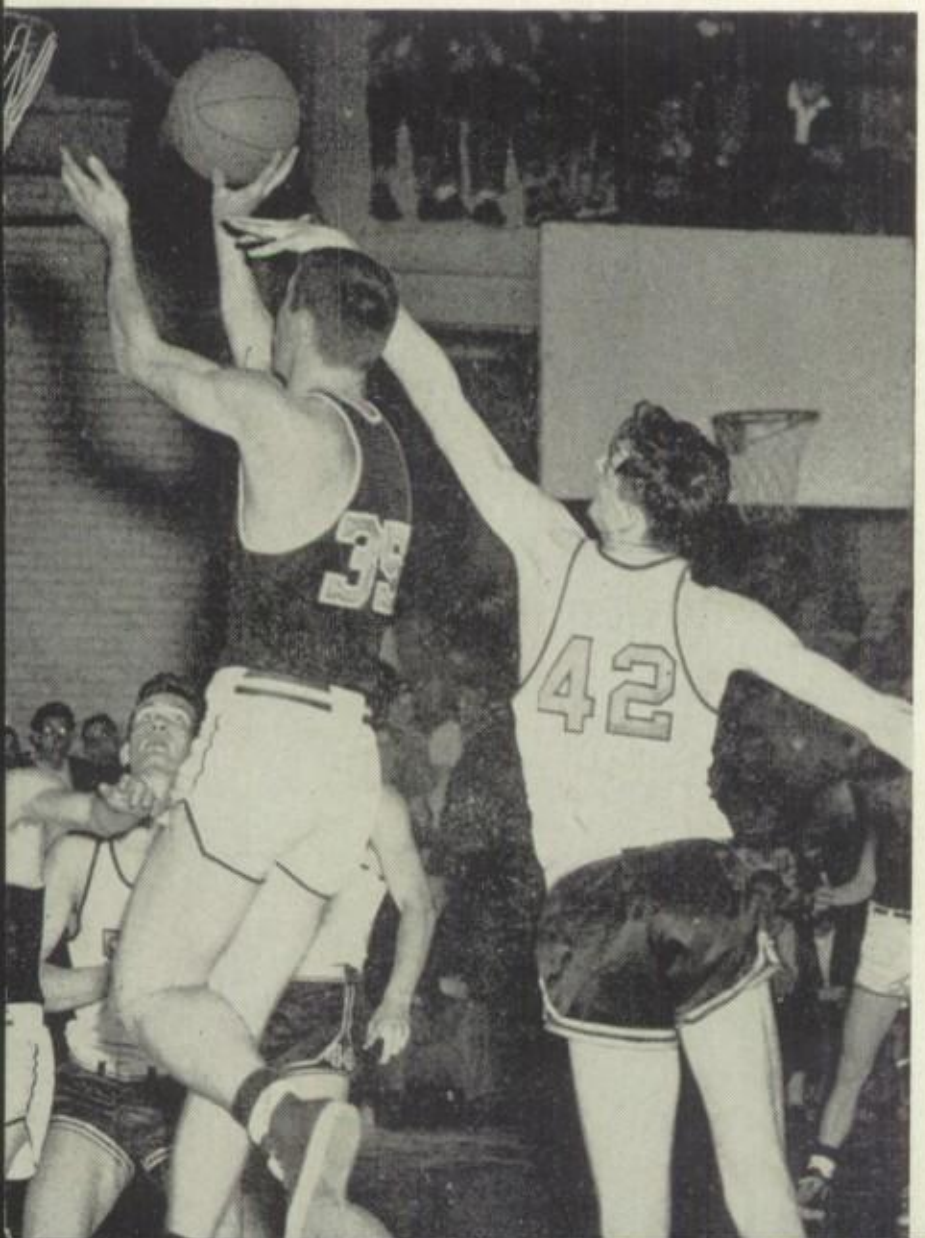

When time for honor came around, it was found that Newport News had placed one man, Bob Conley, on the All-State Basketball team and two men, Bob Conley and Cecil Wright, on the Eastern District All-Star team. At an assembly after basketball season Bob Conley received an award for being the "best offensive player" and Cecil Wright for the "best defensive player."

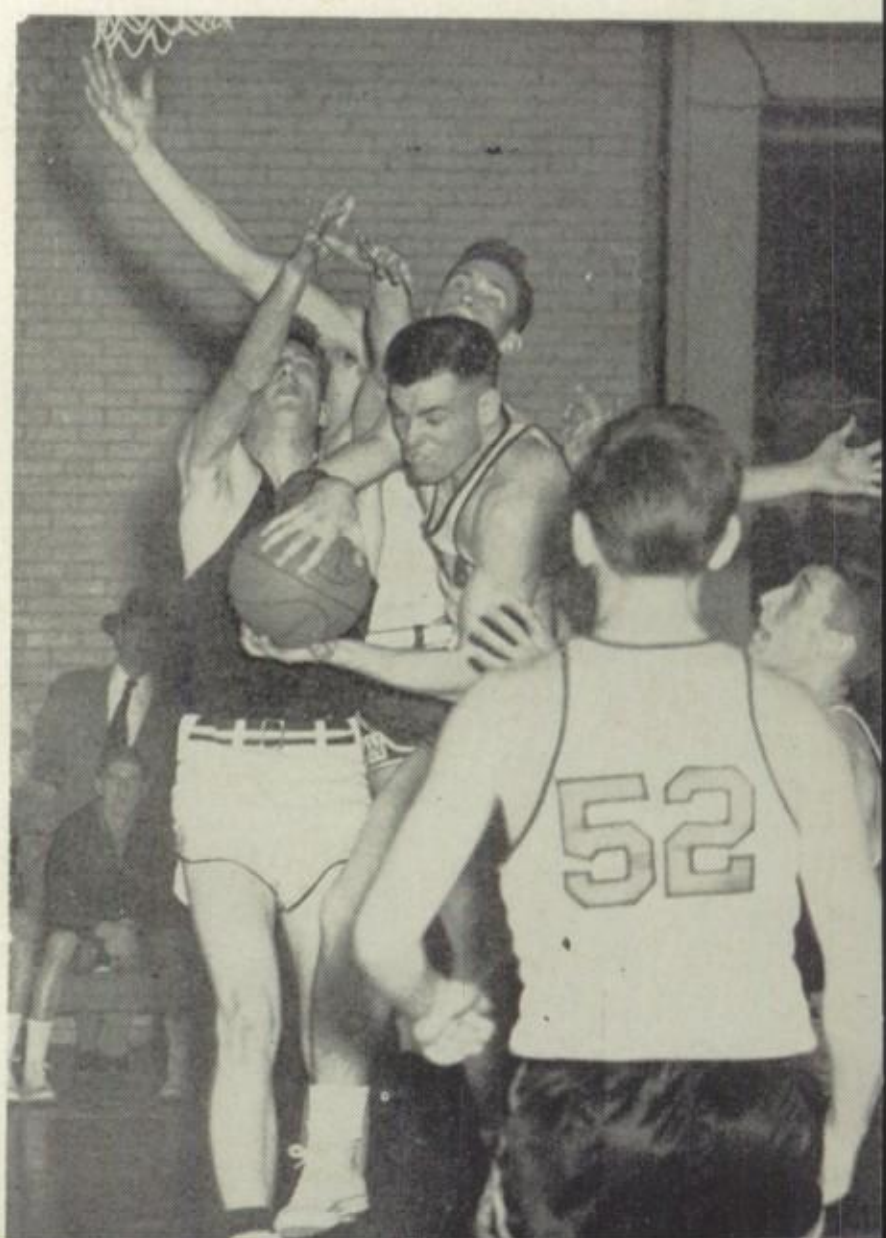

DONALD BRANDT goes high into the air to sing this bucket in the game with Nor-view.

IN A VAIN attempt to block this shot, Cecil Underwood fouled a Granby player.

THIS MIX-UP occurred during the game with Hampton. Newport players, Cecil Underwood and Bobby Sterling finally got together on the possession of the ball.

"THAT'S MY BALL," cries Bob Conley, as he crashes through to obtain a definite possession of the ball.

and More Practice

PATHS TO GLORY — This year Coaches Lou Plum and Julie Conn fielded one of the most balanced track teams that Newport News High School has had in a long time. Fleet of foot, Typhoon runners such as Weymouth, Jenkins, and Hinnant sparked the team to an undefeated season in dual meets. On top of that the tracksters retained Newport's titles in the State Indoor Meet and the Southern Scholastic Indoor Meet which comprises teams from all over the South. Later in the spring, the Gold and Blue cindermen added new laurels by taking the Tidewater and Eastern District Meets. Yes, it was a banner year as far as track was concerned. Newport's men showed that they had what it took in the "sport of individuals."

JACK BROADWATER skims fantastically close to that high hurdle and displays the winning form that brings in the points for Newport.

"HE FLIES THROUGH the air with the greatest of ease." This daring young man is Jack Nelson caught just as he clears the bar in the meet with Hampton.

The Fighting Spirit That Marks a Champion Team

"ONE, TWO, THREE strikes you're out," says pitcher, Bob Conley. The near perfect combination of Conley and Don Brandt, catcher, was responsible for many of the Gold and Blue wins on the diamond. The team wasn't lacking in the hitting department either as Alvin Norman (below, right) shows when he belts one into deep left field.

DIAMOND HEADLINES

This year's baseball team was especially noted for its fine spirit and hustle. Under the tutelage of Coach Jack Powers, the team powered and pitched itself to another triumphant season. Led by the pitching of Bob Conley, and the masterful hitting and fielding of such players as Cecil Underwood, Leo Fitchett, and Don Brandt, the Typhoons won most of their games and were among the leaders in the Eastern District.

The Gold and Blue men boasted one of the strongest in-fields in the state consisting of Cecil Underwood, first base; Jerry Londeres, second base; Grady Webb, third base; and Alvin Norman, shortstop. The most sensational game of the season was the Warwick game when Bob Conley struck out twenty of the twenty-eight batters he faced and pitched an amazing one-hitter. Thus, the baseball team ended the year's round of sports with flying colors.

STRETCHING mightily, Cecil Underwood leans far out in an effort to make the double play.

Smashed Its Way to a Triumphant Season

"There's No Business Like Show Business"

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1952. The first day of school opened with memories of a carefree summer and hopes of a successful year. After three month of relaxation, we are ready to start our studies again.

THE SCHOOL'S main bulletin board informed us on daily activities. Jane Peirce, who ably keeps the bulletin board up-to-date, posts a notice announcing Student Council meeting Tuesday morning.

"THE GHOST will get you if you don't watch out." Jenny Lou Martin cleans up the hall in the fall "clean up week" as a ghost, Ann Newsome, hovers over her.

NNHS BEGINS the football season with a bang-up pep assembly in hopes that the team will be "Champ in '52."

And No Life Like High School Life

THE MOCK presidential election gave students a chance to vote for the candidate of their choice. This "election" was held prior to the national election in November.

VARSITY FLAGTWIRLERS, Patty Parker, Beverly Zegopulos, Marjorie Krause, and Jeanne Winstead, dressed as school girls add variety to the pep assembly before the Granby game.

"HONOR: THE KEY to the door of life." This was the theme brought out by the Reverend A. Purnell Bailey in the fall honor assembly. Behind him are Barbara Peach, chairman of Honor Council; Barbara Ballard, Vianne Bryant, and Larry Armstrong.

"PLOW THE FARMERS under" yell the Typhoon Cheerleaders as they mimic Warwick rivals in one of the biggest pep assemblies of the year.

WAYNE BECKNER renders a "peppy" selection on his guitar. Pep assemblies consist not only of spirited yelling but also of entertaining skits.

The Glamour of the Turkey Day, the Thrill of Awards

PAJAMA PARTY? No, it's just our Key Club quartet composed of Cecil Underwood, Jack Odell, Billy Dick, and Bobby Sterling, singing their arrangement of "Glow Worm" in the Hampton Pep Assembly.

"CRUSH THE CRABS, devil the crabs," scream this football team of girls as they demonstrate their school spirit in the Hampton Pep Assembly.

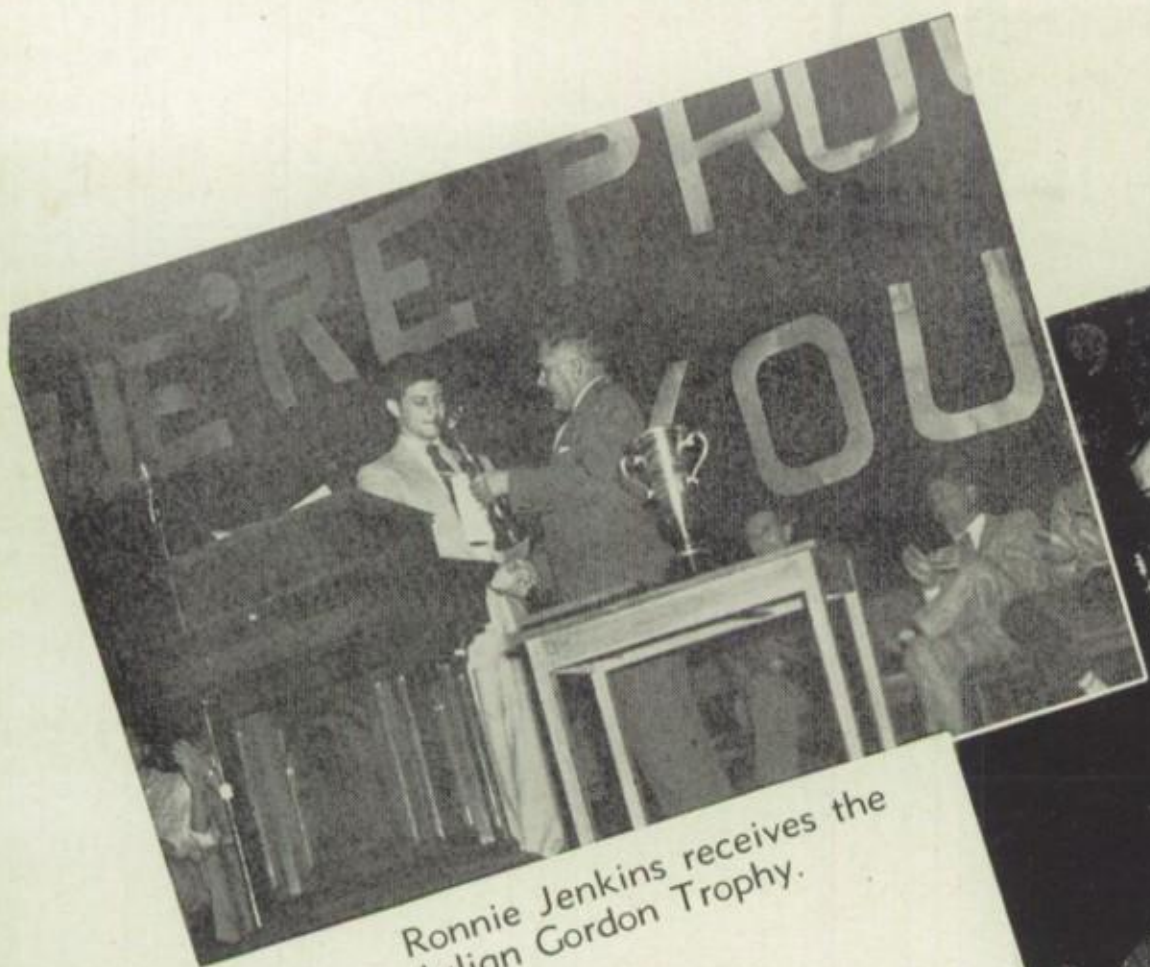

SANTA CLAUS, Red Crossley, arrives early for the Turkey Day Classic and in time to present our cheerleaders with yellow chrysanthemums.

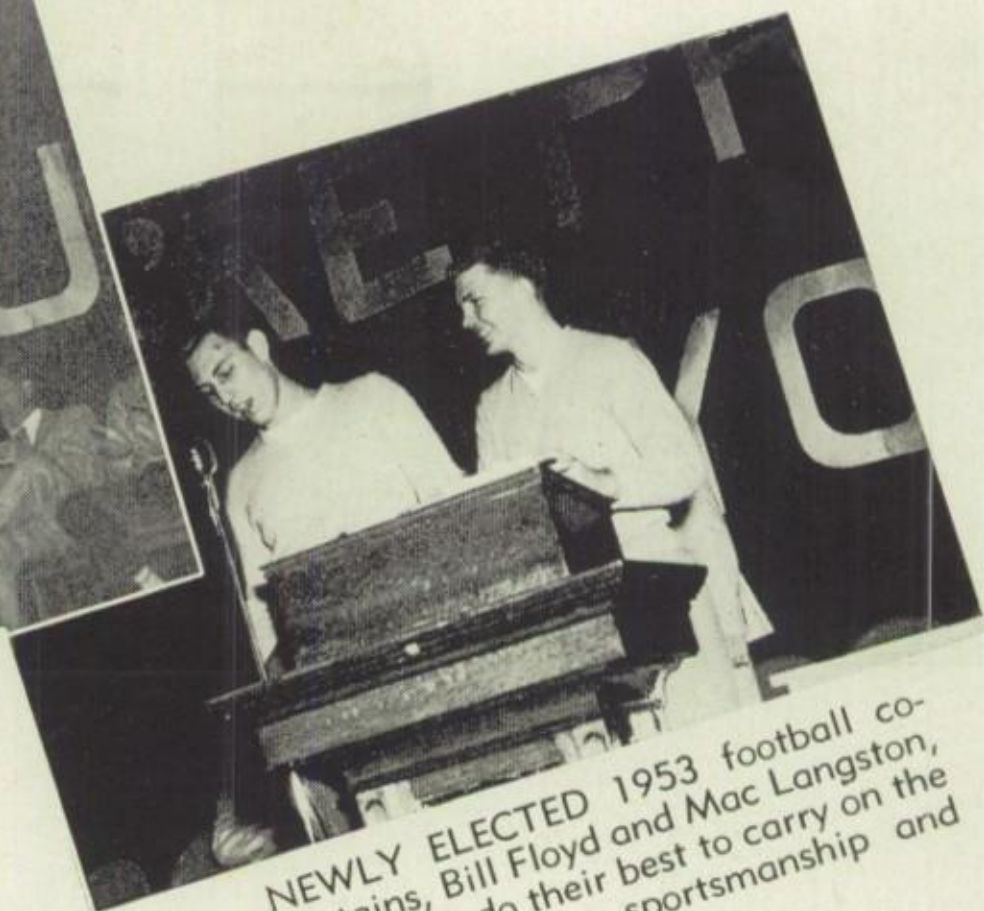

HALFTIME at the Thanksgiving game is brightened by colorful balloons scattered by the flagtwirlers.

All Add Up to Make an Exciting Year

Ronnie Jenkins receives the Julian Gordon Trophy.

NEWLY ELECTED 1953 football co-captains, Bill Floyd and Mac Langston, promise to do their best to carry on the tradition of fine sportsmanship and team spirit.

EIGHTH GRADER, Billy Williams, looks enviously at the symbol of twelve years of hard work and treasured memories — the senior class ring.

A MODERN interpretation of an age-old theme is given in the Christmas play, "By-Line for Saint Luke," in which Joan Kounnas and Joe Parker play leading roles.

CERTAINLY LOOKS like fun! The FHA Sno-Ball was the last dance held in the cafeteria before the fire. The climax of the dance was the crowning of the Sno-Ball Queen, Jackie Martens.

The Fire Will Be a Long Remembered Tragedy

REMEMBER ALL that took place on this stage — the many dramatic presentations, musical concerts, pep assemblies, convocations. Closed, the curtain stood solemn and majestic and its opening always heralded an evening of fine entertainment. Boasting the largest high school stage in Virginia, the auditorium not only served our own school functions but also those of the community.

TRAGEDY, HOWEVER, entered our play on December 28, 1952, when a raging fire gutted the auditorium and severely damaged the third floor. The havoc wrought by the flames can be seen in this picture of the stage the morning after the fire. Girders that had previously supported the roof, spiraled down and twisted across the floor of the stage. The damage of this devastating fire started by three young arsonists amounted to almost $400,000.

THE COMBINED manpower of the Newport News, Warwick, and C. & O. Fire Departments poured tons of water on the roaring inferno before the flames were subdued. Seventy-five firemen fought valiantly to prevent the spread of flames and save our high school from total destruction. In the upper left of the above picture part of the wall can be seen collapsing into the building. The fire, however, failed to dampen school spirit.

School officials and students cooperated in readjusting themselves to the situation, and school opened a week later than scheduled with activities in full swing. The effects of the fire will have far-reaching results in the plans for reconstruction that school officials are making. The fire will long be remembered by faculty, alumni, and students as a tragic phase in the history of Newport News High School.

THE REAR VIEW of a completely damaged auditorium. The metal on the floor shows the remains of seats after flames had consumed the wood.

Though Partially Disrupted by the Fire

FRIENDLY TYPHOON WEEK is an annual event in NNHS. Sam Block, Mary Ann Weaver, Harriet Corsons, Fritz White, and Billy Williams demonstrate with their "smiling faces" the theme of the week, "Get in style and wear a smile."

KEY CLUB MEMBERS were royally dined by Kiwanian, Mr. Irving Fuller, at the banquet which he gave in their honor. The Key Club works closely with the Kiwanis Club throughout the year for the betterment of the school and community.

THE FIRE didn't stop the Typhoons from having that all important pep assembly before the basketball tournament. Microphones were set up on the gym floor and students cheered the team as they received their good-luck pennies.

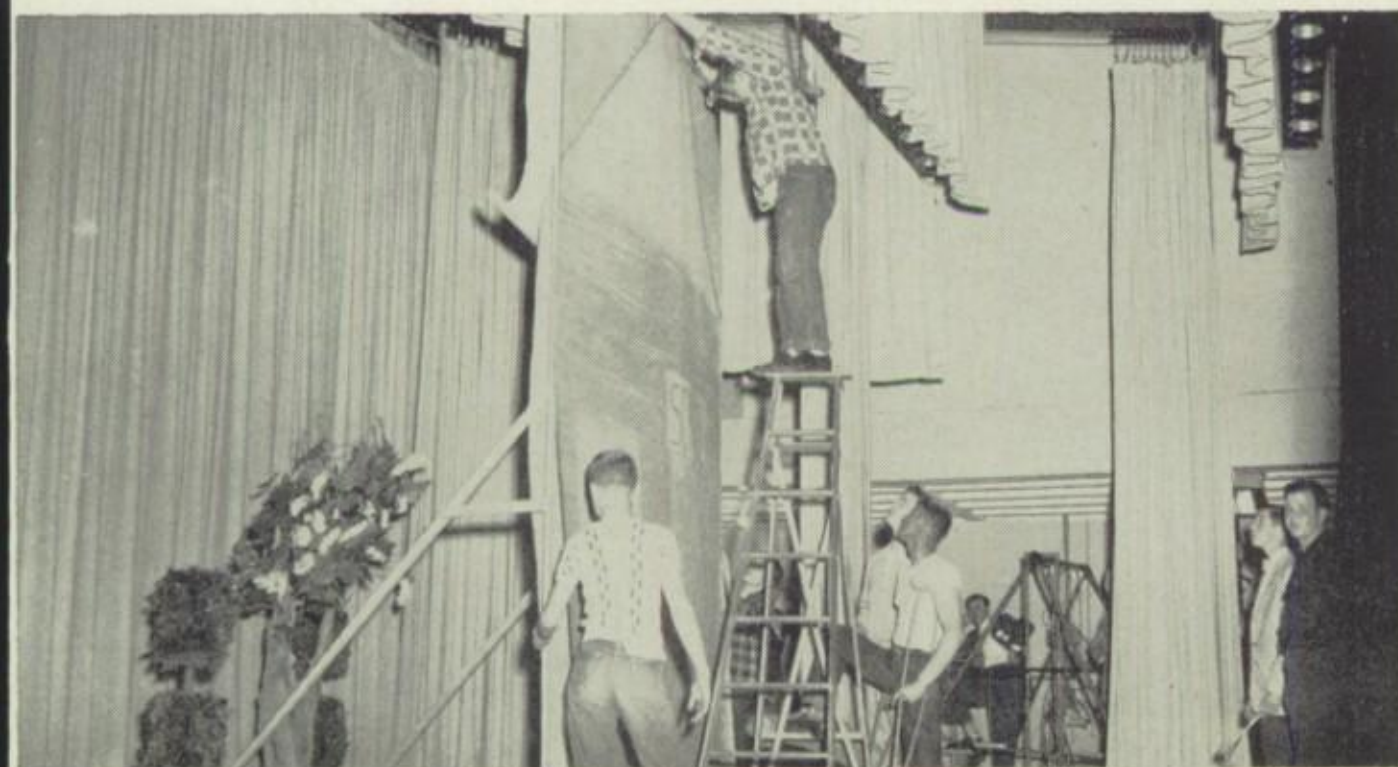

IT WAS A dramatic moment when Coach Julius Conn promised that he and the team would do their best to bring the Championship back to Newport News High School for a third consecutive year.

School Life Went on Much as Usual

BARBARA ANN DEAL smiles happily as she plays hostess to school mates, Adrienne Nettles, Billy Williams, Anne Newsome, and Mary Dick.

GETTING READY for the musical revue given by the chorus, the stage crew is busy putting up the back-drop for "A Touch of Starlight."

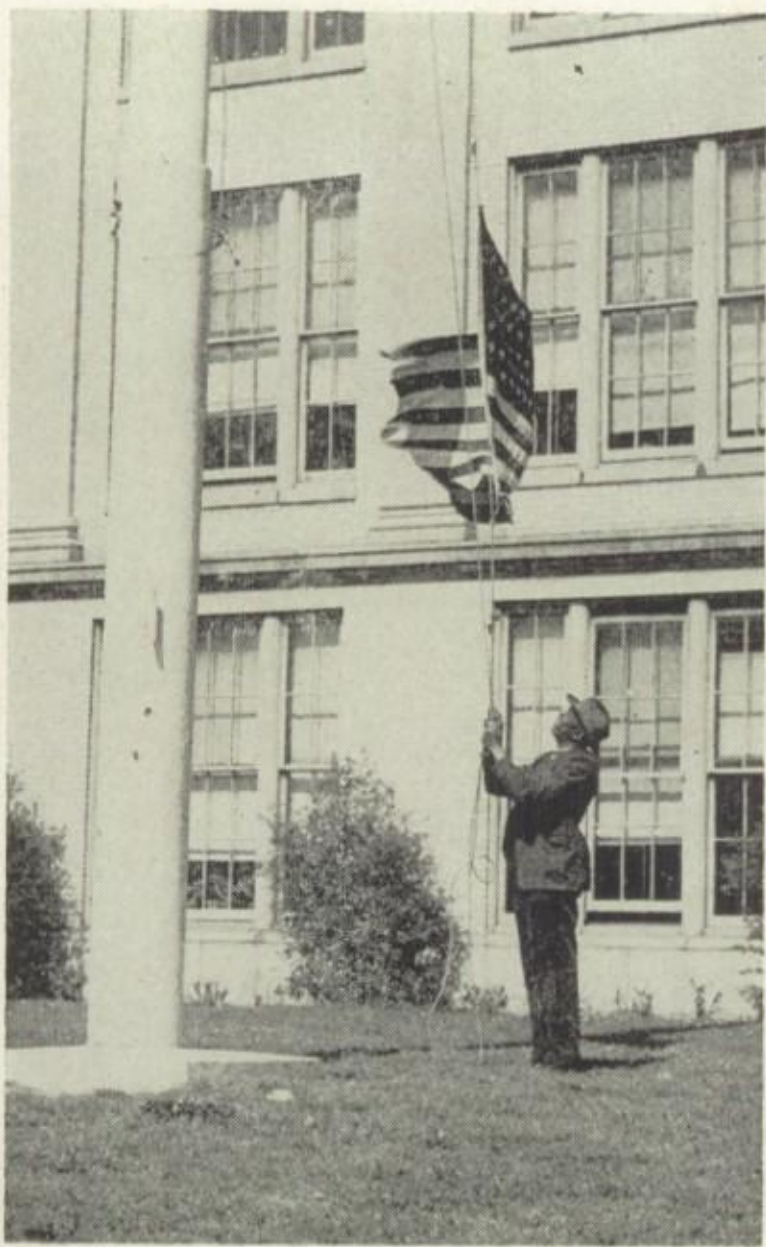

PLAYING BASKETBALL with much enthusiasm, these girls battle to be champions of the class tournament.

VOLLEYBALL is another exciting sport in gym class. After the fire, the armory became a girls' gymnasium where volleyball was one of the few sports in which the girls could still participate.

The Final Curtain Closed;

A TYPICAL SCHOOL day begins as Roy raises the flag.

EXAM TIME! This is definitely not the happiest week in the year as can be plainly seen by the expressions on the faces of these eighth graders.

HIGH NOON — the line forms for lunch. Because of the fire the three lunch periods have been combined; and only milk sandwiches, and fruit are sold. Jimmy Shires, Raoul Weinstein, Kay Walker, and Marion Timberlake wait their turn as Mrs. Mae Hughes, cafeteria head, distributes the food.

"GEE, HOW COULD I have gotten such a low grade," moans Jerry Hogge as he tells his woes to Joe Keranen. Report cards come out three times a semester and each time are accompanied by a variety of emotions ranging from objection to joy.

A Successful Season Ended

THE SCHOOL NURSE, Mrs. Lucille Williams, examines Patricia Helmick's sore throat as Wanda Keeter looks on.

TOMMY LINDSAY admires a March of Dimes poster. Students of the high school gave generously to this drive.

3:35 — STUDENTS put their studies and worries behind them when they leave school on a Friday afternoon. The long week is over; and for a time at least, they are carefree with anticipation of the dates and good times they will have over the week-end.

AFTER THE STUDENTS have left the building, the work of the maids begins. Halls and classrooms are swept, trash collected, and the blackboards are washed in preparation for another day.

A CREED FOR AMERICAN YOUTH

I resolve to let no time or opportunities slip unused by me; that in small things I will strive to do the best that I can in order that the big opportunities of the future will find me qualified. I realize that my future is an enlargement of the present. What I do in my high school years will make me stronger in character that I may help to make a stronger America.

Wake up, you sleepy head! Haddon French Bowen finds it hard to rise and shine this morning. Once up Haddon French prepares for the day. She knows just how to begin the morning . . . in a sporty outfit cleaned by Dawn Laundry.

Launderers

Breakfast-time finds Haddon French sipping hot chocolate and outlining the events for a busy day. Pep Assembly today, and Haddon French, a varsity cheerleader, practices the routine cheers. Friday night, at last! . . . Don't Haddon French and her date, Bobby Sterling, look chipper in their "Sunday best," also cleaned by Dawn Laundry!

interesting work

...and you can get it!

Telephone work is interesting — and you don't need experience to get a good job after graduation!

That's one reason why so many girls head for the telephone company when they finish school. They know they'll earn good money from the start, even while they're trained, and get raises regularly.

Your high school counselor can tell you more about the many different telephone jobs — or come in and see us when you finish school!

Mayan;
you are a darling boy, and a real swell friend. Keep up the good work on the J.V. football team & you will be a real good varsity.

The very best of happiness & success in everything you do. Have fun this summer but be good.

Love ya!

Major -

Best wishes, always!
to the cutest and sweetest boy, I know!

Love you
Lenora Greenberry

Madon - Back by next morning. You are really a cute & nice boy. They shall say. See you around this summer. Be good.

Love,
Flanny
